Boy Governors Open 4-Day Session Today

A four-day National Conference of Boy Governors was to open here today with registration at the Hotel Statler and the opening session in Room 155 of the Senate Office Building at 2:30 p.m.

Nineteen of the teen-age boys from as many states, who comprise the contingent, were to hear Senator Smith, Republican, of New Jersey, at the opening session. A dinner meeting will be held at 6 p.m. at the Continental Hotel and at 8 p.m. a conference session will be held at the Senate Office Building.

The youths, who are here to consider more than 200 "bills" passed by Hi-Y Model Legislatures in 22 states, will discuss bills ranging from sex education in high schools to legislation regulating minimum salaries for teachers.

Other "bills" touch on alcohol control, foreign affairs, taxation, health, education, labor, conservation and welfare. Twenty-three measures are related to highway safety and safe driving.

At 12:30 p.m. tomorrow the group will visit President Truman at the White House and, later in the day, will visit the Senate, House and the FBI. Another conference session at the Senate Office Building will be held at 8 p.m.

In conjunction with the Boy Governors conference will be the annual meeting of the National Council of the Y. M. C. A. More than 500 lay and professional executives of the Y movement will attend.
